August-September 2007

Greetings from the East Brothers:

This Trestle Board will be a double-up issue covering both August and September. We have only one meeting in August: District Deputy Grand Master R.:W.:Terry O'Dell, will pay an official visit to Florida Keys Lodge 336 Tuesday, Aug. 14. The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. This is the first round of visits this Masonic Year by the District Deputy and his District Committee Chairmen. Coats and ties are in order.

We have some petitions to consider in the next month or so, so we'll have our traditional two meetings in September: Sept. 11 and Sept. 25 at the regular 8 p.m. hour. Flowered sport shirts will be in order as we get caught up on some summer business.

Compliments received on EA Degree conferred July 24:

W.:Lee Cranmer and R.:W.:Jay Glover, both of Marathon Lodge 323, R.:W.:Joe Basler, Grand Junior Warden, R.:W.: Harry Futch, District 35 Instructor, and W.:John Borsa Jr., Master of Hurricane Lodge 401 in Hialeah, and several of his Lodge Brothers were on hand for the EA Degree we did on July 24. W.:Cramer sat in the East and R.:W.:Glover did the conducting, R.:W.:Basler, R.:W.:Futch, and W.:Jeff Hunt of Marathon Lodge, all took part in the initiation ceremonies for Bro. Richard Rollins. Members from the Committee on Work who were present gave us compliments for the way in which the degree was presented.

Grand Master's visit set for Sept. 28:

District Deputy Grand Master R.:W.:Terry O'Dell, will be the host for M.:W.:Robert B. Perry Jr., Grand Master of Florida, and his entourage for the Grand Master's official visit to Key West and District 36 Sept. 28. We'll have more information on this event at our August and September meetings.

Open Book Meeting Aug. 18:

District Instructor W.:Tim Dressing will hold an Open Book session Saturday, Aug. 18 at the Scottish Rite Center in Key West from 9 a.m. to noon.

W.:Dressing is to be complimented on his work in organizing Degree Teams that assist all the Lodges in District 36 in putting on Degrees. Under his leadership the Degree Work in the District has improved tenfold.

High Twelve International Club holds initial meeting:

Florida Keys Masonic High Twelve International Club No. 758 held its first monthly luncheon July 29 at the Key Colony Inn in Key Colony Beach. R.:W.:Jay Glover was the host. A nice group of Master Masons, their wives and families got together for an enjoyable luncheon. The next meeting of the Club will be the same weekend in September as the Grand Master's visit to Key West. The October meeting of the Keys High 12 Club will be in the Upper Keys and nominations of permanent officers for the coming year will take place at that time. The November meeting will be in the Marathon area and election of permanent officers will be held at that time. Details will be forthcoming when schedules are completed. High 12 membership is open to any Master Mason. Wives, spousal equivalents and guests are welcome to participate.

Diana Southworth dies:

Diana Southworth, wife of Bro. Bob Southworth, now living in Lake Placid, Fla., died in early August. A Celebration of Life was held for her Aug. 5 at the Islamorada Moose Club.

Ill.:Art Reppenhagen Masonic Graveside Services:

W.:Dave Whitney represented Florida Keys Lodge 336 at the funeral and graveside services for Ill.:Art Reppenhagen in Key West Aug. 16. Ill.:Reppenhagen was an inspiration and leader to the Scottish Rite Valley of Key West for many years. W.:Whitney served as Junior Deacon in the full Masonic graveside services held.
